Located on a 640-acre tract in historic Tuscumbeia, Ivy Green was built in 1820 by David and Mary Fairfax Moore Keller, grandparents of Helen Keller.

Helen Keller's birthplace cottage is situated east of the main house and consists of a large room with a lovely bay window and playroom. Originally, the small "annex" was an office for keeping the plantation's books.

The entire estate is nestled under a cooling canopy of English boxwoods (over 150 years old), magnolia, mimosa, and other trees, accented by roses, honeysuckle, smilax, and an abundance of English Ivy (for which the estate receives its name).

"The Miracle Worker" is performed on the grounds of Ivy Green each year. Celebrating over 30 years of outdoor performances at the birthplace of "America's First Lady of Courage," the play carries the audience into the daily disappointments and then the miraculous breakthrough of the young Helen Keller at the guidance of her teacher Anne Sullivan, "The Miracle Worker", with authentic costumes and sets, and professional acting.
